

The American College of Heraldry

A Registration of the Armorial Bearings of
The Clan McShane

Be it by these presents known that a Petition hath been submitted unto Representatives of the College requesting that Armorial Bearings appertaining unto the aforementioned Armiger be Recognized and Registered. The Executive Director, under the authority of the Board of Governors, duly surveyed the Petition and the Armorial Bearings presented, and deemed all things to be in order and accurately represented.

It is, therefore, with pleasure that We Recognize the Arms being rightfully borne and displayed by the Armiger and do enter them in Our Archives and Records under Registration Number 2648, the said Arms being Blazoned to wit:

On a round Celtic shield, quartersy, 1st and 4th Argent, two lions combatant supporting a dexter hand apaumée couped at the wrist, all Gules. 2nd and 3rd Vert, a lion rampant Or, armed and langued Gules. Above the Shield is placed a Celtic helmet Proper with a Mantling Vert doubled Argent and on a Wreath Argent and Vert is set for Crest, three crescents conjoined in trefoil, their horns outwards, Gules.

To provide testimony of these proceedings, this Document hath been executed and the Executive Director hath thereunto set his hand and Arms affixed the seal of the College this day before Almighty God and this Society of Armigers.
